

Carolyn Rice, Montgomery County Treasurer

Carolyn Rice has served as Montgomery County Treasurer since February 2007. Prior to her appointment as Treasurer, Carolyn worked 17 years in the private sector for a variety of organizations including Reynolds & Reynolds, LexisNexis, Dames & Moore, and Wright State University. Her leadership and business skills saw her promoted to positions of increasing responsibilities within the organizations she served.

As County Treasurer, Carolyn is applying her wealth of experience in management and leadership to better serve the citizens of Montgomery County. She has been a long-time champion of land banking and was instrumental in getting the Ohio Legislature to expand authority for land banking to counties with a population of more than 60,000. She serves as Chair of the Land Bank Committee within the County Treasurer's Association of Ohio. Through her leadership, Montgomery County's land bank was created in July 2011. She currently serves as Chair of the land bank board as well as acting Executive Director. Carolyn also leads Montgomery County's Moving Ohio Forward initiative to demolish 700 homes in the county by the end of December 2013.

Carolyn is a native of Dayton and received her Bachelor of Science in Education from Miami University of Ohio and her Master of Business Administration from Wright State University.
