

KAMLA LEWIS

Ms. Lewis is the Director of Neighborhood Revitalization for the City of Shaker Heights, Ohio, with responsibility for housing preservation. She has over 20 years of experience working in community development in a variety of settings. In addition to her 10 years in municipal government, she has worked at the international level with the United Nations Development Program, in a non-profit setting at the San Francisco Food Bank, at the County level with the Cuyahoga County Board of County Commissioners in Ohio and at the regional level with the Regional Transit Authority (GCRTA) in Cleveland. She is the Co-Chair of the First Suburbs Consortium Housing Sub-Committee and a member of several regional organizations working on the issues of vacant properties and land reuse, including the Vacant & Abandoned Property Action Council (VAPAC). She is a graduate of Princeton University in New Jersey, and Cambridge University in England, with an academic background in both political science and development economics.