

Sam Lamancusa, Trumbull County Treasurer

Sam Lamancusa is the current Treasurer of Trumbull County and Chairman of the Trumbull County Land Reutilization Corporation. Sam joined the Treasurer's office in 2001, first serving as Chief Deputy Treasurer before being elected to the office. Sam also served as the Girard City Auditor for thirteen years.

As Treasurer and Land Bank Chairman, Sam is in a position to help and work with the public in one of the most trying times in Trumbull County history.

Sam has been a lifelong resident of Girard. He and his wife Nicci have two children and a very spoiled grandson. Sam is often heard saying that we must work to save Trumbull County and bring back the neighborhood environment that he grew up in, for the sake of our grandchildren.
