

MATTHEW J. LAMPKE
Mortgage Foreclosure Counsel
Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine's Office

Matt Lampke has been with the Ohio Attorney General's Office since 1997. He is currently the Mortgage Foreclosure Counsel to the Attorney General assigned to the Monitoring Committee overseeing the new mortgage servicing standards and distributing $93 million in demolition and programmatic grants. He has also served in the Executive Agencies, Capital Crimes, Employment Law, Court of Claims and Major Appeals Group sections. He is a coordinator of the Attorney General's PATRIOT pro bono program where he educates volunteers and assists service members on issues related to consumer counseling and estate planning.

He was awarded the 2005 Ohio State Bar Foundation Community Service Award for Attorneys 40 and Under for his sustained legal, social and community service. He was also recognized as a "Rising Star" Super Lawyer in 2005 for demonstrated superior professional potential.

Matt is also a Major in the Army Reserve serving as Trial Counsel in the Judge Advocate General's Corps. He received his commission in July 2000. He is a veteran of Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation New Dawn in which he received the Bronze Star.

Matt was elected to Bexley City Council in 2001 and re-elected in 2005 and 2009. He has served as a past Council President.

Matt graduated from the University of Dayton with a Bachelor's Degree in History in 1994. He received his law degree and a Masters in Public Administration from the University of Akron in 1997.

He has two children Megan (9) and Madison (7).